

SeaDream I

As you sail through the Mediterranean Sea on-board SeaDream I, delight in discovering Italy's Emerald Coast, discovered and developed by the Aga Khan in 1961, it is now a sanctuary to preserve the area's natural beauty. If you're cruising along the Sognefjord shoreline, admire the extraordinarily beautiful Norwegian Fjords; whilst cruising in the Caribbean enjoy the magic that is Vieques Bay – at night, tiny organisms gather together and create a mysterious blue-green light – it's a bit like sailing through stardust.
