Rome to Athens (Voyage 5119)

8 Days from 15 July 2011

This cruise is an exploration of power and authority; discover Roman gods, Greek goddesses and temptresses. Start in Rome, hailed for its Roman Empire, before sailing to Palermo, a subdued and relaxed Italian town awash with rumours of the infamous Italian Mafia. In Corfu, admire pretty fishing boats, while in Athens, soak up street culture and compelling archaeological relics left by the Ancient Greeks.
