PRESS RELEASE

EXCLUSIVE OFFER FOR ANTIGUA SAILING WEEK 2015 FROM ELEGANT RESORTS

Elegant Resorts is delighted to present a unique opportunity to visit Antigua during the world-renowned Sailing Week – taking place from 25 April to 1 May 2015 – while enjoying the hospitality of The Inn at English Harbour. This fine Caribbean hotel is perfectly located to enjoy all of the event's excitement and our exclusive offer includes watching the racing action in style from the comfort of the hotel's yacht. Guests can also take advantage of a boat shuttle service into the harbour, which is the main hub for socialising, as well as superb facilities including the Inn Spa, complimentary water sports and Caribbean cuisine.

An annual event, Antigua Sailing Week takes place over five days, involves a variety of courses off the south coast and is expected to attract over 100 yachts, from state-of-the-art racing machines to performance cruisers. Each day concludes with post-race social events and prize-giving at Antigua Yacht Club, culminating in a final awards ceremony on Friday and lots of celebrating. Dockyard Day, held on Saturday, includes the Beating of the Retreat as the Antiguan flag is lowered to signal the close of Sailing Week.

EXCLUSIVE TO ELEGANT RESORTS

Stay 7 nights, including half board in a Junior Suite, with complimentary daytime water taxis to Nelson's Dockyard and Fort Berkeley, one excursion on Xenia & Faye (the hotel's antique motorised yacht) to watch the racing at close proximity with food and drinks; complimentary use of the hotel's non-motorised watersports and one dinner at Abracadabra restaurant during sailing week;* economy flights, private transfers and UK lounge passes. From £3,045 p.p.
*(Dinner at Abracadabra includes transfers, soft and alcoholic beverages are not included. Use of hotel tennis courts and complimentary garden tour.)
