ELEGANT RESORTS LAUNCHES HANDY-SIZED LUXURY CRUISE BROCHURE 2014

As people's appetite for luxury cruising grows, so does the variety of itineraries and destinations on offer and luxury travel company Elegant Resorts has just released its latest selection in a stylish, handbag-sized booklet, ensuring you can take it anywhere while you browse through the enticing options.

As always, they only feature the very best luxury cruise partners – think Silversea, Seabourn, Oceania, Crystal, Cunard and Regent Seven Seas. Each ship has its own unique features – maybe you're looking for a large ship with plenty of on-board attractions, or perhaps something more intimate and bespoke fits the bill? Rest assured you'll find the perfect choice to tempt you along the way.

And while they have a wonderful selection of 'standard' cruise itineraries, the brochure also features an exciting choice of adventure-driven expeditions taking you off-the-beaten track. One of the most exciting and new for 2014 is Silver Galapagos, offering two ultra-luxurious exploratory journeys around these rarely visited Islands.

What's more, their dedicated Travel Consultants use many years of knowledge and expertise to help you choose the perfect cruise and personalise your itinerary. For example, let them arrange a few nights at one of the glorious hotels from their worldwide portfolio at the beginning or end of your cruise to ensure your journey begins and ends in impeccable style and you can relax safe in the knowledge that they will be there to help and advise you every step of the way.
