PRESS RELEASE

ELEGANT RESORTS LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

Never one to stand still and rest on its laurels, leading luxury Tour Operator, Elegant Resorts has unveiled a stylish new website designed to make the process of choosing a luxury holiday even easier. Visitors can marvel at its stunning graphics and easy to navigate content, whether browsing on a laptop, smart phone, iPad or other tablet device. Highlights include more intuitive search features, some fabulous special offers and a dedicated lifestyle showcase designed to inspire and delight visitors to the site.

As well as requesting brochures, you can also ask for a tailor-made quote or view the latest blogs which focus on the latest news and in-vogue destinations of the month. There's also chance to meet the Elegant Resorts' team, find out where their favourite places are and what makes them tick as well as a chance of course to put a face to a name of someone you may well have corresponded with many times before.

Speaking of the new-look website, Elegant Resorts Managing Director Michelle Sephton said "Our team has worked tirelessly to get our new website just right and we're absolutely thrilled with the results. As well as designing something beautiful to look at, it also needed to reflect our passion and devotion to luxury travel whilst also being as easy as possible to navigate for the end user."

As well as launching its new website, Elegant Resorts has recently unveiled its 2014 brochures which include:

Arabian Gulf & Indian Ocean

Caribbean & Mexico

Europe & North Africa

The Americas

Asia, Australasia & Africa

Cruise

Within the brochures, you'll find some hotels and resorts with a long-standing reputation for excellence alongside some exciting, new properties. From magical islands like Barbados in the Caribbean to the more mystical experiences of a rail journey through Asia, Elegant Resorts has luxury travel well and truly covered.

So if you're considering your next holiday and don't know where to start, let the leaders in luxury travel guide you and visit its new website at www.elegantresorts.co.uk or call 01244 897 100.
