PRESS RELEASE

ELEGANT RESORTS LAUNCHES LUXURY SKI BROCHURE 2010/11

Elegant Resorts has launched its Luxury Ski brochure for 2010/11 offering clients its most comprehensive ski brochure ever. With a significant increase to its portfolio, the new-look collection has been completely revamped and includes 27 new properties. The brochure focuses on luxury hotels and chalets in the top ski regions worldwide.

UK summertime skiing is featured with holidays available in New Zealand, Chile and Argentina. With a ski season lasting from June to October, alongside favourable weather conditions, excellent powder snow and terrain for all levels of skiers, these destinations are ideal for clients looking for more than a traditional ski holiday.

Elegant Resorts have also reintroduced some areas/regions in its brochure. These are Tignes and Megève in France; St Christoph and Zürs in Austria; Gstaad in Switzerland; Banff, Lake Louise, Jasper and Tremblant in Canada; and Aspen, Jackson Hole, Telluride and Stowe in the USA.

Elegant Resorts' extensive range of chalets has also been expanded, with chalets starting from £8,500 per week* (Chalet Chopine in Méribel) to the Hidden Dragon in Switzerland, which is available from £25,550 per week*. Sleeping up to 12 guests, this unique chalet is anything but conventional. This chalet juxtaposes ancient Feng Shui principles with modern designs and antique furnishings with organic materials for a truly harmonious ambience. Guests have access to their own spa, and yoga deck, a wine cellar and a Gents' club-style ski room.
