PRESS RELEASE

ELEGANT RESORTS WINS PRESTIGIOUS ACCOLADE AT 2013 ULTRATRAVEL AWARDS

Luxury travel company Elegant Resorts is delighted to announce it has been voted 'Best Small Luxury Tour Operator' at the 2013 Ultratravel Awards. This prestigious award reflects an excellent year for the Chester-based tour operator who is also celebrating its 25th Anniversary. The awards recognises the very best performing luxury travel companies, hotels, airlines, cruise companies, spas and destinations as judged by the Daily Telegraph and Ultratravel readers.

The Awards ceremony was held at The Dorchester on Monday 20 May and was attended by a strong contingent from Elegant Resorts whose guests at the event also included Jean Joseph from One&Only Resorts and Chiara Bonuglia from Ritz-Carlton.

Speaking about the award, Elegant Resorts' Managing Director Michelle Sephton said: 'We're absolutely delighted to receive such a fantastic award. Looking after our clients to the very best of our abilities and providing holidays beyond luxury is our passion, so to see all our hard work paying off is wonderful. 2013 is a very special year for us as we celebrate our 25th Anniversary so this is an excellent opportunity to accept an award on behalf of the whole Elegant Resorts' team.'
