

ELEGANT RESORTS HOSTS LUXURY DUBROVNIK TRIP FOR AGENTS

Elegant Resorts recently escorted three agents and their partners on a luxurious educational trip to Dubrovnik, Croatia, staying in Hotel Excelsior Dubrovnik for four nights. With its prestigious location just a five-minute walk from the medieval fortress walls and a west-facing view of the glorious Old Town, the former 1913 royal villa is one of the most lavish hotels on the Adriatic.

From start to finish, the agents experienced the very best in luxury travel, which included Fast Track passes and luxury lounge access at the airport. Activities included a full day tour of the Pelješac wine region, with visits to local wineries and oyster and mussel-tasting in Ston, a private sightseeing tour of the UNESCO Old Town and its city walls, an excursion to Konavle located in the southernmost region of Croatia, and a visit to Villa Orsula, one of Croatia's most exclusive boutique hotels.

Tim Maloney, Business Development Manager at Elegant Resorts and trip-leader, said: "This was all about getting our agents out to Dubrovnik, so they could experience first-hand, the holidays that they sell and what these destinations have to offer. We were able to organise a fantastic and varied programme for them, which will be invaluable when they come to discuss these holiday destinations with their clients."
